TV Acting and Presenting Course

Television, Films, Commercials and TV Presenting

Courtney – an actor on Television

Acting and Drama Skills

Training includes:

- voice projection
- vocal expression
- script interpretation
- learning lines
- creating a character
- facial expression
- projecting personality – all in practical and exciting workshop sessions.

TV Presenting Training Session

- TV commercial training
- Working live on TV
- Weather and news presenting
- TV hosting

Screen Tests and Audition Training

These practical workshops are taken by a well-known television Director/Producer and will prepare you for all types of auditions. Training includes a 'live audition' on camera with an international TV Director and also a leading Australian Casting Consultant.

Receive a 'show reel'

Practical workshops are included regularly throughout the course – these are often filmed. Your final performance will be copied onto a 'show reel' which will then become your own promotional video – and is ideal for you to take to casting agencies on completion of your course.

Grooming and Presentation

Make sure you make a positive first impression when going for auditions and castings.

- Deportment / Body Language
- Make up application (females)
- Dressing for success
- Personal Grooming & Presentation Skills

Developing Confidence and Personality

This course will enhance your confidence and self esteem. You will become more relaxed at expressing yourself in front of the camera – also ideal for developing your public speaking and communication skills!

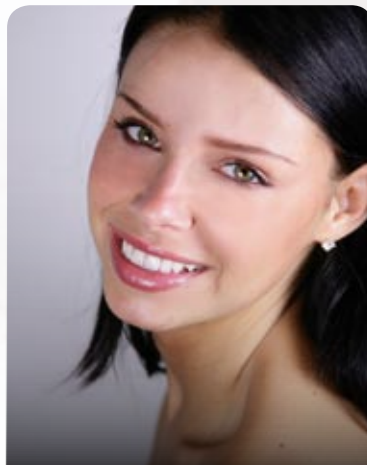

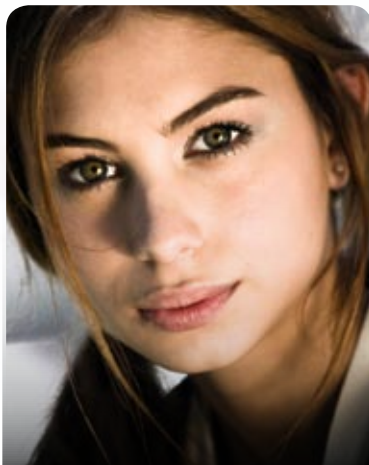

General Information

All lessons are taken by experts in the Film and Television industry including:

- Professional Actors
- Television Presenters
- Film and Television Directors
- Casting Directors

Class sizes are small (maximum of 15 students) to encourage your relaxed participation and to ensure you receive personalised instruction and direction.

If you are interested in a professional career as an actor, television presenter, or if you simply have an ambition to 'give it a go' – then this is the course for you.

After course assistance

Upon completion of your course you shall be individually guided and advised regarding your acting potential, how to approach Acting/ Casting Agencies, prepare your biography and how to get started in the industry.

Photographs can be arranged for you through our professional photographer and our staff will assist you in preparing your biography and your showreel.

It is a well known and proven fact that Suzan Johnston gives its successful graduates invaluable career assistance and ongoing support. Our success is your success!
